

A Level Psychology Learning Pathway

Welcome to Year 12

Year 12

Spring Half-Term 1:

Cognition and Development Topic-how we develop our knowledge from birth.

Research Methods Topic-how research in Psychology is conducted and interpreted.

Autumn Half-Term 2:

Issues and Debates Topic- views held in Psychology.

Research Methods Topic

Year 12

Autumn Half-Term 1:

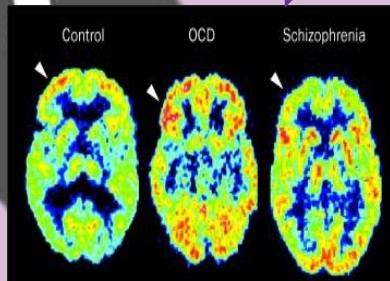

Approaches Topic-different psychologists' views of behaviour.

Research Methods Topic

Spring Half-Term 2:

Schizophrenia Topic-learn all about this mental disorder including treatments.

Research Methods Topic

Summer Half-Term 1:

Forensic Psychology Topic-learn about why offenders commit their crimes and how Psychology can help reduce offending.

Research Methods Topic

Year 12

Summer Half-Term 2:

Forensic Psychology Topic-learn about why offenders commit their crimes and how Psychology can help reduce offending.

Research Methods Topic

Recap of the year's topics.

Welcome to Year 13

Summer Half-Term 2:

Recap of all topics and final exams!

Summer Half-Term 1:

Biopsychology-the biology behind behaviour.

Research Methods Topic

Year 13

Spring Half-Term 2:

Psychopathology-learn about how we define abnormality and mental disorders.

Research Methods Topic

Year 13

Spring Half-Term 1:

Attachment Topic- how and why babies and children form relationships with their caregivers.

Research Methods Topic

Autumn Half-Term 2:

Memory Topic- how our memories work, why we forget and eyewitness testimony.

Research Methods Topic

Autumn Half-Term 1:

Social Influence Topic- learn about how people interact with each other in society.

Research Methods Topic